

Finally, a guide book that gives you the inside scoop on how to really interact with locals – written by a local. Ali Alsaloom is one of the fastest rising media stars and public speakers in the Gulf. His TV show, Ask Ali, reaches thousands, as does his column in the weekly magazine M. For his work as a cultural ambassador, Time Out even recognized him as one of their 40 local heroes in 2008.

Add to that Ali's extensive worldwide travels and you can see why he is considered the pre-eminent Emirati expert on intercultural affairs, with a special sensitivity to the expat experience.

After reading Ask Ali: a guide to Abu Dhabi, you will know:

- ✓ How the UAE went from the Camel to the Cadillac
- ✓ The essential information for relocating, exploring and settling in Abu Dhabi
- ✓ The best way to get a bargain when you visit the souq
- ✓ Where to find the best local restaurants
- ✓ How to show respect during Ramadan

The Mini Guide is available in English language and soon to be available in other 3 languages including Arabic.

Pass by at the Embrace Arabia Stand (hall 8 stand G02).

Ali Alsaloom and the Embrace Arabia team are looking forward meeting you!
